MISSIONARY

LOS ANGELES, CA

MY STORY

Though I was saved at an early age and have been following Jesus for a long time, the Lord has continually been teaching me about the beautiful and powerful implications the gospel has on my everyday life. In particular, God has been growing a passion to see more and more people come to know the joy, freedom, and hope that I have found in following Jesus.

I believe that through giving our lives completely to Jesus and inviting others into relationship with Him we will find great joy, purpose and satisfaction. This desire to see others know Jesus has taken me across the globe on short-term mission trips, to Austin, TX for a worship-residency and eventually to Los Angeles to church plant with The Commons LA.

...what you heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.

- 2 Timothy 2:2

THE COMMONS | LA

The Commons LA church exists to primarily reach the region of Los Angeles that is chiefly influenced by UCLA-Westwood & West LA. Our community blends the urban city with a top global university, UCLA, which attracts more applicants per year than any other and is also the largest non-government employer in LA. The ethnic, generational, and socio-economic diversity of this region along with the educational environment presents a unique opportunity for the gospel's advancement locally and globally into other urban university settings.

MY ROLE

I feel called to spend my life making disciples in an urban context with the hope that through my investment in a global city, I will be able to play a small part in reaching the nations with the "Good News of Jesus Christ."

My primary role in Los Angeles is that of a missionary, seeking to engage with and share the gospel with those in our city. I am also leading our church's worship and production team while seeking to equip and empower our community to love and serve our city through word and deed.

COMMUNITY

As a church, we place a high priority on community. Our deep longing to be known, valued, and loved by other people is a sign not of weakness but of God's fingerprints. Our relational God - Father, Son, and Spirit - made us for relationship and He loves us too much to let us flourish apart from walking deeply with others.

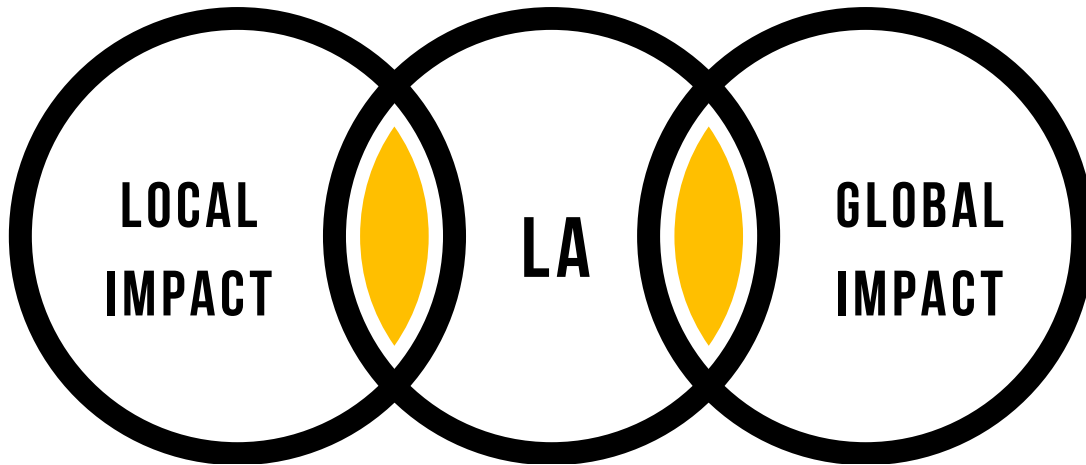

MISSION

The dominant pattern for loving our city in the Scriptures is twofold: invest in the well-being of others and invite others into our lives (Jer 29:4-7; Matt 5:13-16). That means we look for ways to invest through serving & generosity toward our neighbors, coworkers, and friends while inviting them into community, to our various gatherings (Sundays, Social Gatherings, service projects), and most importantly - we invite them to Jesus!

THE NATIONS HAVE COME TO LA

The church has always had the same mission- make disciples and send them out to make more disciples. By making disciples in a multi-ethnic context we believe we cannot only make a gospel impact here in our city, but also to the ends of the Earth!
